COURT, DISTRICT OF UTAH
JUL 11 2019
BY D. MARK JONES, CLERK
DEPUTY CLERK

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF UTAH, CENTRAL DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

ANTHONY THOMAS MURDZAK,

Defendant.

Case No. 1:19-CR-00071 HCN

MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

Chief Magistrate Judge Paul M. Warner

The United States hereby moves the Court to enter a protective order related to the disclosure of evidence in this case. Specifically, the United States moves the Court to enter an order precluding the defendant and their counsel from making disclosures of the information included in the government's discovery, other than as necessary to prepare for the defense in this matter.

The discovery in this matter contains personal identifying information of witnesses and subjects of the underlying charges in this case. The disclosure of this information to third parties could potentially put these witnesses and subjects in danger. Because of the volume of discovery in this case, and because the discovery is comprised of records containing myriad personal identifying information, redacting such information is not feasible. Moreover, discovery includes recordings not easily redacted. Therefore, the United States intends to provide unredacted discovery to counsel for the defendants.

In order to balance the need for privacy with the need for disclosure, the United States requests that the Court enter the attached proposed order.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED on 11th day of July, 2019.

JOHN W. HUBER
United States Attorney
